

South Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.

HOPKINSVILLE, JAN. 2, 1883.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

We have F. Bowler, of Logan Co., a candidate for Attorney General, subject to the action of the Democratic State Convention. Election in August, 1883.

We are authorized to announce Prof. H. B. Wayland, of Catiz, as a candidate for County Judge of Trigg county. Election August 1883.

We are authorized to announce Capt. Ralph Sheldon, of Nelson county, as a candidate for re-election as Register of the Land Office, subject to the action of the Democratic party Election August 1883.

The Dixon Polityog has changed its name to the Webster County Record.

A recent sale of articles accumulated at the Dead Letter Office aggregated $4.47.

Senator Pendleton's Civil Service Reform bill has passed the Senate by a vote of 39 to 5. It is believed that the bill will fail to pass the House.

As intimated last week Col. Eggleston H. Thompson has been appointed by the Governor as Judge Price's successor, as Judge of the city court of Louisville.

We have received the first copy of the Louisville Semi-Weekly Post, which is published at the exceedingly low price of $1.25 per annum. It is worth three times the price charged.

President Arthur has authorized the announcement to the employees of the Treasury Department that no more removals for political causes will be made during the remainder of his term.

The girl who can play on a piano may be "accomplished," but the one who can put a patch on her husband's pants, or rock a cradle with one hand and churn with the other is better fitted for the stern realities of life.

The Commercial and the Gazette, two Republican dailies of Cincinnati have been consolidated under the name of the Commercial-Gazette. Deacon Richard Smith, of the Gazette will be editor of the new paper. Mr. Murat Halstead of the Commercial will retire from journalism.

Mr. I. Dinkelspiel, of the Sunday Argus has sold his paper to Mr. E. F. Madden and will become business manager of the Commercial. Mr. Ben H. Ridgely of the Argus will become city editor of the Commercial. Mr. Madden will have editorial charge of the Argus.

The project to hold a great Southern Exposition at Louisville next fall is meeting with much favor and substantial encouragement in that city. $215,000 have already been subscribed and the matter is still being pushed ahead with vigor. The plan is to make the exhibition second only to the Philadelphia centennial exposition.

Tom L. Cannon the energetic proprietor and editor of the Henderson State Sentinel issued a double number Wednesday Dec. 20, which was a credit both to him and the city of Henderson. We would have mentioned his stroke of commendable enterprise last week, but his alleged joke at our expense in the previous number threw us into convulsions and we did not recover in time to give it our attention.

The News says a crowd of drunkards took the town of Elizabethtown Christmas night and fired two thousand pistol shots without regard to life or property. No lives were lost but nearly every window on Main street was shattered with bullets and many of the street lamps were broken and destroyed. The disgraceful, howling mob continued their devilry all night without molestation by the authorities.

Hon. Ed. W. Turner, of Richmond, died Thursday aged 53 years. He was a graduate of Center College and the Louisville Law School. He began as deputy Sheriff and was successively County Attorney, editor of the Richmond Democrat, Government commissioner under Buchanan to treat with the Sioux Indians, Presidential Elector on the Breckinridge and Lane ticket, County Judge, Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge, Master of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, State Senator, member of the Legislature, Speaker of the House and Clerk of the House. He was a member of the Presbyterian church. He was buried with Masonic honors.

As the rooms now occupied by this office were recently used by a secret society, it may not be amiss to give some instructions as to how to get into them. In coming into the lodge room advance to the outer door and give one loud and one light knock, which means $1.50. This will admit you, when you will give the usual password which is, "Cash in advance and stop when out." You will then advance three steps, salute the presiding officer by placing your hand upon your pocket-book and say, "I am here for your paper."

One of the finest steamboats on the western rivers has just been finished at Pittsburgh and christened "Wild Hare" in honor of the river editor of the Courier Journal. It will run between Cincinnati and New Orleans.

One of Randall's friends who claims to know the programme says Mr. Randall has formed a combination "that is sure to win" and elect him Speaker. His friends are to help elect Jno. G. Thompson, Sergeant-at-Arm and Atkins, of Tennessee, Clerk. In the meantime, Mr. Carlisle's friends, are not at all uneasy. Neither Blackburn or Randall's "combination" can beat the great Kentuckian.

We have received for the year 1883 one of "Pierce's Patent Subscription and Mailing List Books," especially designed for newspapers. For convenience and simplicity, it is ahead of anything of the kind we have ever seen. Each name is written on a slip separately, and is fastened in the book by a thread running down each side of the page. A name can be changed or dropped by simply moving the slip. When a subscriber's time expires the slip can be turned over and another name written on the other side. It is the only thing we have ever seen whereby erasures and mutilations are avoided. The books are manufactured exclusively by E. W. Pierce, Claremont, N. H., and we would advise all brother publishers to get one of them by all means.

Sheldon and Boyd.

The card of Capt. Linn Boyd, published in last week's South Kentuckian, created quite a stir in the Register's office. It will be remembered that the card contained some direct and damaging charges against Capt. Ralph Sheldon, the Register. When the article appeared Capt. Boyd that he could consider himself discharged from the position of deputy in the office. A "combination" was formed during the session of the State convention in 1879, by which Sheldon and Boyd bound themselves to divide the office, the one who was nominated to employ the other as deputy. Sheldon was nominated and in pursuance of the agreement Boyd has been his deputy up to the time he was discharged last week. The latter claims that Sheldon has no right to discharge him and will take the matter into the courts. Section 1, Chapter 81 of the General Statutes reads thus:

"No office, or post of profit, trust or honor under this Commonwealth, whether civil or military, legislative, executive, ministerial or judicial, nor the deputation thereof, in whole or in part, shall be sold or let to farm by any person holding, or expecting to hold the same. Such person so selling or letting, and the person so buying or receiving the letting, or with whose knowledge the same has been bought for him by another, shall be disqualified from holding such office, or post, or the deputation thereof, and upon conviction shall be expelled therefrom."

It will be seen that the contract between Sheldon and Boyd, while it bound them morally, was illegal in the eyes of the law. Boyd claims that he is entitled to the pay of the remaining nine months of Sheldon's term, as deputy, and now that he has been discharged he proposes to test the matter in the courts. Boyd cannot recover his contract, but he may succeed in having Sheldon ousted for violating the law. If this is done he will himself be proven equally guilty and the result will be the disqualification of both for the office for which both are candidates. Sheldon, however, claims that the contract was only a verbal agreement and that Boyd cannot prove that any binding contract existed. This is about the shape the matter is now in. It is more than likely that it will result in the defeat of both Sheldon and Boyd for Register of the Land Office for the next term.

Colic in Horses.

We are informed by a gentleman who has given much attention to the diseases to which horses are liable, that the following remedy is a safe and effective one. It is certainly simple, and if administered with proper prudence, we are not aware that it would do any harm to the animal if it did not effect a cure. We give it the more readily because it is a remedy always at hand, namely:

Dissolve as much salt in a quart of pure water as may be required thoroughly to saturate the liquid, and druggery the patient with one half of it. If the symptoms of relief are not noticed in fifteen minutes or half an hour, give him the remainder. He states that this remedy has proved entirely successful in many severe cases, where other more complicated medicines have failed.

There are two kinds of colic, flatulent and spasmodic. In the first, it is occasioned by the enlargement of the intestines by the food passing through the process of fermentation instead of digestion. Gases are largely generated, and hence the detention and pain. The spasmodic colic, which is accompanied by more excruciating pains than the former, is caused by the contraction of a portion of the small intestines. In either case, to force down various pungent and violent remedies is dangerous and cruel.

Mrs. John H. Milliken, of Franklin, Ky., spent last week visiting her mother, Mrs. B. T. Underwood.

Mr. John J. Henry, agent for the Chautauque combination, was in the city Friday, and paid us a pleasant call.

Information was received yesterday that Rev. M. A. Maxey, formerly of this county, was lying dangerously ill of pneumonia at his home in Columbia, Tenn.

Miss Lilla Nunn, a bright and vivacious young lady of Uxide, Tex., who is attending school at Nashville, Tenn., spent the holidays at Col. E. A. Syper's. Miss Maude Henry, of the county, also spent the week with Mrs. Syper.

Mr. John W. Breathitt, Jr., left last week for Fort Worth, Texas, to accept a position with the wholesale boot and shoe house of Martin & Evans. Mr. Breathitt is one of our most popular young gentlemen and his friends are loth to part with him both in the social and business circles of the city.

Mr. James Bird Campbell, one of the most universally popular young gentlemen of this city, left yesterday for Fresno, California, to take up his home for the future. It is with infinite regret that we note his departure. He will be missed from amongst our young men and it is quite likely that some female hearts will be saddened by his departure. He has our fatherly blessing and best wishes.

Leg Cut Off.

John Brice, a brakeman on the L. & N. railroad, fell upon the track at Petersburg Sunday the 31st, and had the flesh of one of his legs so mangled and torn that the limb had to be amputated. It was taken off by Dr. Fuqua, of this city. Brice lives at Crofton and as we go to press his condition is reported almost hopeless and his recovery is considered impossible. He was a good reliable employee and was to have been made a conductor in a few days.

Fatal Railroad Accident

Last week was one prolific of accidents. Four weeks of minor importance occurred in as many days, and on Monday morning Jan. 1, at 1 o'clock, a freight train was wrecked at Baker's Hill, Tenn., and five cars thrown from the track. A brakeman named Fred Carney, was killed outright in the wreck.

Harry Tandy will be the South Kentuckian carrier for this year. He will begin to-day.

There were Christmas trees at the colored Methodist and Baptist churches on the evening of the 25th, ult.

The Christmas tree at the Second Presbyterian church was heavily loaded with presents for the Sunday School children.

The "Kentucky Minstrels," a colored amateur company, composed of local talent, gave a show at the court-house Friday night.

Mrs. Chautauque's rendition of the celebrated "Hunting Speech," in the character of "Lady Gay Spunker," is said to be unequalled by any living artist.

We ordered 62 copies of the Courier-Journal for our subscribers during last year. This is an increase of 20 over the previous year. Our club rates are $2.75.

Madisonville is no longer a telephone station. We do not know whether the station has been abolished permanently or not, but we hope it is only temporarily.

Mr. and Mrs. Chautauque will both appear in the same play, "London Assurance," next Thursday night. They are the favorites of our people and will draw a full house. Tickets at the usual place at popular prices.

The horses attached to Hopkins transfer wagon ran away Saturday afternoon, and came at full speed down Nashville street from the depot to Main, where they were stopped without any damage being done.

Rev. J. W. Venable, of Versailles, Ky., the new Rector of Grace Episcopal church, will arrive this week and will preach at the court house next Sunday and will continue to preach there every Sunday until the new church is finished.

Our friends will now find us comfortably located in our new quarters on Nashville street. The rooms, location and arrangement, are a big improvement on our old stand and we are now ready to begin the new year with a better office than we have ever had before.

Our carrier, Jas. F. Garity, desires to return his thanks to those who so generously helped him when he delivered his annual address on Christmas day. He received enough quarters and half-dollars to aggregate quite a handsome sum, for which he is truly and sincerely grateful.

Mr. Joe Hanberry, of this county, lost a yearling calf some weeks since and last week it was found in a sink twelve feet deep still living, having gone without food or water for 32 days. It was taken out and is still alive, although it was hardly able to eat. Mr. Hanberry thinks with careful treatment it can be brought around all right.

Don't forget that the South Kentuckian office is the only place in Hopkinsville where you can get all kinds of paper bags. We handle the "Anchor Square" and "Satchel Bottom" both and guarantee our goods to be just what we represent. We furnish them with or without printing. Call and inspect our stock.

The post office was moved into its new quarters on Bridge street last Thursday. Sixty-one lock boxes are already up and they were all taken in a few hours. 360 delivery boxes will be received in a day or two. The new office will be well arranged and fitted up with all the latest improvements.

The C. W. C. A. donated the sum of $52.60 to the fire sufferers in October. This was given from their treasury and not as the result of the concert given, which was not under the management of the Association. This body is doing a great deal of good in the city, and should be fostered and encouraged. It meets every second and fourth Wednesday at the various churches alternately.

There will be a public competitive drill at the Court House to-night, and at its conclusion an elegant gold medal will be awarded to the best drilled man in "Co. D." The medal cost about $90, and was purchased by the company a few days since to be awarded to the best drilled man. The Court House will be well lighted and heated and the public is invited to attend the drill.

Charlie Metcalfe prepared a most delicious Christmas supper in his room last Monday evening to which he invited a number of his young gentlemen friends. Charlie never does things by halves and on this occasion he set for the delectation of his guests one of the handsomest and most tempting tables it has been our pleasure to see and help demolish for a month of Sundays. Everything in the way of substantial as well as cakes, ambrosia, salads, etc., was provided in the greatest abundance. About twenty young gentlemen were present and partook

State Teachers' Association.

The Kentucky State Teachers' Association met in this city Dec. 26, 1882, and continued in session three days. The attendance was small but the meeting was one of much interest and pleasure.

The Association was called to order at 7 o'clock P. M., Tuesday the 26th, by Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, the President, of Louisville. Prof. A. S. Loventhal, the Secretary, being absent Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville, was chosen Secretary pro tem.

The address of welcome delivered by Rev. E. L. Powell of this city will appear next week. It was responded to by Dr. J. Deane Pickett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a speech of ten minutes.

The President then delivered an address on "The Needs of the Public Schools," and "The music by the children of the Hopkinsville Public Schools, with Miss Katie McDaniel at the organ, the meeting adjourned.

The Association met pursuant to adjournment at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. After prayer by Dr. Pickett, the chair proceeded to announce the following committees: Committee on Organization—Prof. C. H. Dietrich, of Hopkinsville; Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville; Miss Jessie Stewart, of Louisville; and the following Committee on Resolutions: Maj. W. J. Davis, of Louisville; Miss M. L. Hodge, of Henderson; Miss Laura Mayo, of Hopkinsville; and Prof. W. J. Fursich, of Eddyville.

Dr. J. B. Reynolds was, on motion, made Railroad Secretary. Prof. S. A. Chambers, of Henderson, read a paper on "Kentucky's Educational Outlook," which was discussed by several members.

An afternoon session was held and Prof. Boring, of Madisonville, read an article "How are the common schools to be made more efficient?" Prof. H. Carothers, of Louisville, read an essay entitled "The End and the Means," and Prof. J. O. West, of this city, read an essay on "Fiction."

At the evening session Maj. W. J. Davis delivered a lengthy scientific address on the "Spectroscope in Astronomy." Miss Westfall then recited "Tom's Little Star" in her usual happy manner after which the meeting adjourned.

Thursday morning the children of the Public Schools were taken through a number of exercises by Prof. Dietrich, illustrating the manner of instruction. The exercises of the morning closed with an address by Prof. Aaron F. Williams, of Hopkinsville.

In the afternoon session the Committee on Resolutions reported in substance as follows:

First—That they heartily recommend the suggestion of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the improvement of the common schools of the State, and also to the accomplishment of the same earnestly invite the co-operation and assistance of the General Assembly and press of the State.

Second—A vote of thanks be tendered to Commissioner Chautauque, Prof. Lipscomb and Dietrich, Miss McDaniel and the pupils of the public schools, for the valuable assistance, and to the citizens of Hopkinsville for their unbounded hospitality, and to the various railroad companies for the reduction of fare.

The Committee on Organization made the following report which was unanimously adopted: Prof. S. A. Chambers, of Henderson, President; Prof. T. H. Smith, Madisonville, vice President; Prof. R. H. Carothers, Louisville, Secretary.

Louisville was selected as the next place of meeting of the association, which will be held during the holidays of December, 1883.

The following teachers were selected as delegates to the National Teachers' Association: W. H. Bartholomew and Miss Jessie Stewart, Louisville; Maurice Kirby, Lexington; C. H. Dietrich and J. W. Rust, Hopkinsville; John A. Williams, Harrodsburg.

In the evening Miss Jessie Stewart, of Louisville, gave two recitations and Judge W. M. Beckner, of Winchester, delivered an excellent and exhaustive address on "A Problem to be solved" in regard to common schools. The body then passed a resolution thanking the people of Hopkinsville and adjourned.

The following is a list of teachers who were present: W. H. Bartholomew, J. B. Reynolds, J. E. Dorland, J. C. Durrett, B. H. Carothers, W. J. Davis, A. J. Smith and Miss Jessie Stewart, Louisville; T. H. Smith and H. Boring, Madisonville; D. C. Cully, Paducah; B. W. Vineyard, Trenton; J. W. Fursich, Eddyville; T. P. Ballard, Columbus; O. Miss A. M. Barnett, Salem; Miss Carrie Burks, Horse Cave; S. A. Chambers and wife, Miesee M. L. Hodge, Mary Howard, Sallie Lockett, Sallie Williams, Mary Sasseen and Sallie Sasseen, Henderson; C. H. Dietrich, C. A. Champlin, M. L. Lipscomb, C. A. Lindsey, J. O. Ferrell, B. C. Deweese, A. F. Williams, E. B. Wood, Mrs. E. W. McKenzie, Mrs. Rosa Bramham and Misses Laura Mayo, Minnie Lander, Susie Rotherford, Annie Kennedy, Lella Mills, Katie McDaniel, and Alberta Pendergast, Hopkinsville.

Officers of Hopkinsville Lodge, No. 37, F. and A. M. for the ensuing year:

Joe McCarroll, Worshipful Master. W. W. Clark, Senior Warden. H. H. Abernathy, Junior Warden. R. M. Fairleigh, Treasurer. A. H. Clark, Secretary. C. H. Dietrich, Senior Deacon. R. H. Suttile, Junior Deacon. Wm. Skerritt, Tyler.

An old clock glass of whisky is called a "chick glass," because it goes to the head. And a few more of the same will go to the legs. Then we suppose you call it a "foot glass."

MARRIED.

DAY—RODMAN: At the Nord House, Henderson, Ky., at 12 o'clock Saturday night, Dec. 30, 1882, Col. Jno. C. Day, of this city, to Miss Mattie Rodman, of Henderson. The wedding was set for Jan. 16, but when Col. Day went to see his betrothed Saturday evening he found that he was likely to encounter opposition, so they repaired to the hotel where they were married without ceremony.

Col. Day is the popular tobacco auctioneer of this city. He returned to this city with his bride Sunday night.

WARE—MARRIE: At the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Ed. W. Walker, Monday, Jan. 1st, 1883, at 3 o'clock P. M., Mr. J. Dudley Ware to Miss Bettie Marrie. Mr. Ware is one of the most prominent and popular young merchants of this city. He has won one of the most beautiful and attractive young ladies of this county and his friends will heartily congratulate him upon his good fortune. The newly married couple have taken rooms at Mr. William Cowan's. May life be to them one continued season of unalloyed happiness, is our earnest wish.

HEAGERTY—McKENZIE: At the residence of the bride's parents, in Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 7, 1882, Mr. Joe Heagerty, formerly of this city, to Miss Lizzie McKenzie, of Nashville. Mr. Heagerty is a brother to Mr. Thos. Heagerty, of this city, and is an industrious and reliable young merchant. We wish for him unbounded happiness in the years to come.

DIED.

RICKETTS: At his residence near Montgomery, Ky., Tuesday morning Dec. 26, 1882, of pneumonia, Mr. G. W. Ricketts, in the 61st year of his age.

Mr. Ricketts was a brother of Mr. J. T. Ricketts, of this city and was one of the best known and most esteemed citizens of Trigg county. He had for several years been identified with the Hopkinsville tobacco market and he has many friends here who learned of his death with deep regret. He had for many years been a member of the Baptist church at Bellview and was a consistent and useful member. He leaves no family excepting a grown son.

GANN: At her residence two miles west of Hopkinsville, Friday Dec. 30, 1882, Miss Ella Gann.

Boy: At the residence of her husband in this county, Friday Dec. 30, 1882, Mrs. Samuel Boyd.

Odd Fellows' Item.

On last Thursday evening accompanied by D. D. G. Patterson, R. M. Anderson, of Morey Encampment, No. 31, I. O. O. F., I visited Bethel Encampment No. 29 at Trenton, Ky. Upon our arrival at the depot Mr. R. H. Moody took us in charge and the time passed pleasantly during the afternoon. About 7 o'clock we were informed by our friend Jim McElwaine that we were wanted. Being escorted to Dyons Hall we found a table spread with good things to eat, presided over by Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Bassford, and Miss Ida Davidson, given by Atalla Lodge, No. 74, I. O. O. F. It was thanks for the pleasure of the hour. After supper we visited Bethel Encampment and D. D. G. P. Anderson instructed the members in the work of the order, after which we visited Atalla Lodge No. 94, where we were cordially received. Among those who took special pains to make our short stay pleasant were Messrs R. H. Moody, L. D. Wallace and Jim and Ed. McElwaine. The visit will ever be one among the pleasantly remembered occasions of our life.

THE Nashville Telegraph College THE ONLY COLLEGE IN THE SOUTH.

The only College that has regular classes running from the College to give students practical line work.

SPECIAL SUMMER RATES. In order to convince the public that Telegraphing is and will continue to be successfully taught we have fixed our rates for the summer as follows: Payable in installments monthly in advance: First Month $25. Second Month $10. Third Month $10. Fourth Month $10.

Should the student not be proficient at the expiration of the 3rd or 4th month he or she is in no case required to pay over the $25 as in the installment plan stated; but there is no reason why a student should not become proficient in that time at the farthest, with the assistance of a teacher. An ideal practical operator, in both Railroad and Commercial business. We have in connection with our College one line completed and working daily, and in a few days will have completed other lines to different parts of the city, thereby giving our students the advantage of practical line work, and with all these superior facilities and the simplicity of Telegraphing. No student should be longer than 4
